A thoughtfully designed home that brings together style, space and functionality, this residence showcases quality finishes and a well considered layout tailored for modern living. Generous interiors are enhanced by high ceilings and abundant natural light, while a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor zones creates a relaxed, easy-flow environment ideal for both everyday family life and entertaining on a larger scale. Multiple living areas provide flexibility for growing families, complemented by a practical floorplan that balances open-plan living with private retreat spaces.

Adding further versatility is a self-contained studio or teenage retreat, complete with both separate external
